Where am I covered?

- ✓ At the home you are insuring in the United Kingdom.

What are my obligations?

---

- At the beginning of the period of insurance or when making changes to your policy, you must give complete and accurate answers to any questions you are asked relating to the insurance.
- You must tell Emerald Life as soon as reasonably practicable after you become aware of any inaccuracies or changes in the information you have provided to us, whether happening before or during the period of insurance.
- You must tell Emerald Life if your circumstances change either before your policy starts or during the period of insurance. For example, if you move house, start a business from home, are declared bankrupt, increase the value of your contents from what is shown on your schedule or if you leave your home unoccupied for more than thirty (30) consecutive days.
- You must tell Emerald Life prior to the start of any conversions, extensions or other structural work to the buildings.
- You must take all reasonable steps to prevent loss, damage or an accident and keep the buildings in a good state of repair.

When we are notified of a change or of any planned structural work we will tell you if this affects your policy. For example we may amend the terms of your policy or require you to pay an additional premium. In certain circumstances we may cancel your policy in accordance with the “General Conditions” section of the policy document.

Failure to meet your obligations could result in a claim being rejected, a reduction in the amount we pay or the cancellation of your policy.

When and how do I pay?

---

- The premium for this policy is payable in full prior to the start of the policy (and then there may be further premiums payable in the event of a change in the cover or your details).

When does the cover start and end?

---

- This insurance cover is for a twelve (12) month period and the start date and end date of the cover are specified in your policy schedule.

How do I cancel the contract?

---

- You can cancel this insurance at any time by contacting us. After the fourteen (14) day cooling off period, provided you have not made a claim, you will be entitled to a refund of any premium paid, subject to a pro-rata deduction for any time for which you have been covered.
